

EVENT RULES

Based on Oulun luonnontieteilijät ry's excursion rules with the board's permission.

Name change from Excursion rules to Event rules based on statutory meeting of the board
14.11.2017

Event rules are applied on every event hosted by Atlas ry

1 § Appliance

These rules apply every event hosted by Atlas ry and those attending said events.

2 § The right to participate

Members of Atlas ry can participate in Atlas' events, excluding the people with a ban.

Atlas ry's board reserves the right to invite other people or groups to events.

3 § Behaviour

Each participant is responsible for their own behaviour. Participants must remember that they are representing University of Oulu, Department of Geography and Atlas ry.

4 § Property damages or other accidents

Atlas ry is not responsible for the possible accidents or damage done to people or property that occurs during events where these rules apply. Everybody's responsible for their own actions and property during Atlas ry's events.

5 § Event punishments

Punishments can be given by the board of Atlas to a participant, who causes trouble or harm to other participants, destroys property and/or acts violently or otherwise harmfully towards other people. Participant has a right to be heard by the board of Atlas before the punishment is given. Note of the punishment will be given in a written form. Possible punishments are the following:

5.2. Compensation

Compensation means paying the organizer for any excess costs that the organizer must pay because of a participant's behaviour. This also includes paying the participation fee if the participant hasn't cancelled the registration according to the rules.

5.3. Event ban

Ban means that a person can be banned from Atlas ry's events for a period decided by the board of Atlas

5.4. Event warning

Event warning is valid for a year, unless otherwise decided by the board. Two event warnings effective at the same time lead to an event ban.

6 § Other notices

Issues concerning events which are not involved in these rules will be discussed in Atlas ry's board meetings if necessary.